Extraordinary Declaration of the Most Worthy Bishop of Rome.

We have been permitted to see a letter from a distinguished gentleman, an accomplished high official position in Germany, his native country, and yet his residence, in which the effect of the new decree—in consequence of the denial of the Immaculate Conception of 1855, is graphically described. Our readers will remember that this infamous agreement between the Pope on one side and the United States, Great Britain, France and Austria, on the other, was a practical surrender of the Temporal Power, and was the deliberate abdication of the Empire into the hands of the Russian Czar. The Pope was to receive a pecuniary consideration, and the direction of the future of morality and the education of the rising generation of Europe, and was to be left in the guiding power in the education of the young for all time, were vested with authority to Bible laws thus supreme; and the Vatican, and the Apostolic Chair, be established as a civil power, become the source from which the most important of measures must flow. The latter to which we have referred, the doctrine of the effect of the change. Poles, Protestants with her Sacrifice of Masses, Confessions of the Church Confessionals of the citizens degraded, Bibles burned, Bibles of heretics are daily proclaimed, and there be not thousands of all dungeons, to half a couple, a spot so far from the carrefidence of the government that a Protestant's Bible

The Negro Suffrage Act of Ohio Carried by Fraud.

The Cincinnati Gazette says that the fraud by which the Negro Suffrage Amendment was carried in Ohio, is now fully exposed and proved, in the returns from Hamilton county. The Democratic majority of sixteen hundred votes in the county, was obtained by the most shameful frauds, and the Democratic majority in the State, was obtained in the same way.

Gov. Chase at Rockford.

The Winnebago Gazette has not had a meeting this campaign. Gov. Chase, of Ohio, will be present to-night in the Opera House, and we see the glorious county we call Winnebago, will be represented by a full house. Let the Democracy of Rockford be there.

Mr. Lincoln in Fulton and Stark County.

Our readers in Fulton and Stark Counties will please notice that Mr. Lincoln is appointed to speak at Vermont, Fulton Co., has been changed to Oct. 7th in place of Oct. 6th, and that he will address the people at Toulon, Stark Co. on Wednesday, the 13th.

Windmiller, Partridge, Calhoun, Take Notice!

Charles E. Gay, appointed to speak on the above named place, is dropped or thrown by Abrams. It will be impossible for him to fill the appointment, as he has an engagement, we understand, at Grand Rapids.

Grand Meeting at Woodstock.

Gov. Chase, of Ohio, will address the People on the Issues of the Present Campaign, at Woodstock, on Thursday, October 14th. The appearance and real ability of this distinguished gentleman will assure a great crowd, speaking will commence at one o'clock P. M.

Hon. Henry S. Lane.

This old Whig statesman will be accepted as invitation to speak at the Republican mass meeting in Bloomington, in the Court House square, on next Saturday afternoon, at two o'clock, during the Sharp Cap and Archery Taylor Club festival campaign. He will also address other meetings in this state before the election.

A Sensible Democrat on Secession.

Hooker—a regular place for a great many meetings. Gov. Chase will be there on Friday, Oct. 15th, to address the people of that section. We really wish we could persuade Gov. Chase to hear the eloquent Sherman. Governor runs a little ahead of Sherman in his speeches, and we have his best.

"Address Accepted and Its Doctrines Approved."

We dress again to-day a column on the ground and on the principles and principal speakers of the Bloomington Convention. The Convention of Presidential Electors, which met at Springfield on the 4th inst., was in accordance with the proceedings of the "Parade." In the second paragraph of the Address the Democracy are charged, and its candidate in detail stands responsible for the following sentiment, which is contained in the Address:

"Without discussing the abstract question whether slavery is right or wrong, we think with the Fathers that the question is one exclusively for the people of the States where slavery exists, and that its existence or non-existence depends entirely upon their will, and that it is not within the province of the General Government to legislate upon it."

Now we desire again to call attention to the above sentiment, and to ask if it is not a virtual endorsement of the Dred Scott decision? Is it not a virtual declaration that the Constitution of the United States carries slavery into the Territories? Is it not a virtual declaration that the Constitution of the United States protects slavery in

PRESS AND TRIBUNE.

TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 9, 1860.

Last Week but Work.

This is the last week but one of the Maine Press and Tribune before the election. The next evening sheets, from weather the same, prize has been earned by weeks, and both worthy to be done. The friends of Liberty should improve every remaining hour, and leave no stone unturned that would endanger success. Now's the day and now's the hour—work, or lose forever.

Read Up to Election of the Election.

We will hold back the publication of the Maine Press and Tribune two or three days after the election, for the purpose of letting the country readers know whether their paper is to continue or to be stopped, at the earliest possible moment.

Now, to refer to do this, we must, even hitherto, have each personal and county in and out the result of the election by the 20th after the votes are counted. We want each letter to state the name of every man for Governor, Congressman and Legislature and Commissioner, and the vote given for each of the Presidential electors.

We desire our friends in Gardiner, Jamestown's, and at Gardiner's district, more especially to attend, as well as this information, by letters from all other parts of the State. We hope they will be prompt. Friends, do not forget this request.

Work to be Done.

The most important work to secure a defeat of the Democracy is to defeat Samuel Cousens, the democratic candidate, so that every Republican may go to the polls. A vote of a cottage would be counted for every vote cast for Cousens, being in the end, loss of fifteen votes. A large vote for Cousens would be a token of the defeat of Mr. Dana. If this plain and simple matter was fully understood, we should have a unanimous vote. Everything depends upon a full vote. Let every Republican feel that the success of the whole depends upon his vote, and the day will be triumphantly secured. Let no man say, he may be absent, or he thinks that the prospect is so favorable, that his vote will be lost. Let every man be thoroughly organized that it has been taken to the polls. Let not a single vote be lost. Let it be so polled the result even has been begun, and if not, give us such a victory as will astonish the world.

Iowa Election.

The result on Congress is still in some doubt in Iowa. We have reliable news from all the districts but Corydon. The Iowa and Minnesota delegations will work hand and hand in Congress with Corwin.

Returns received from twenty-five counties of the Northern District, indicate the election of Vanderveer almost certainly.

Ohio Election—20,000 Republican Majority.

The Democratic Gazette of the 7th has reports from 73 counties, giving the majorities in the State Ticket, which foot up as follows:

Republican majority	17,775
Democratic majority	2,000
Republican majority	15,775

The remaining counties cannot reduce the majority to over 18,000, being a gain of over 11,000 on vote for Governor last year.

Pennsylvania Legislature.

The latest returns reduces the following to not for the legislature, viz:

Republican majority in Senate	1
Republican majority in House	15
Joint ballot	14

Of the Democrats there are Anti-Buchanan elected, mostly by Republican votes, and will most probably act with the Republicans.
